1. DELEGATION SKILLS FOR MANAGERS AND PROFESSIONALS
   Ever been frustrated with an employee or co-worker who just isn’t performing as hoped? This training provides an introduction to the delegation skills needed to work successfully with employees or other professionals for mutual gain. Successful delegation is a key leadership and management skill that will allow you to bring the performance of yourself and your team to the highest possible level.
   DATE: OCT. 9, 2018 | 9:00 AM - 11:30 AM | COST: $35
   LOCATION: KSU, Kennesaw campus, English Building RM 166

2. MANAGING CONFLICT AND INCREASING COLLABORATION IN DIVERSE TEAMS
   Interested in effectively managing conflict in diverse teams? Wonder how to increase collaboration among your employees? Leaders play an important role in influencing teams’ effectiveness and performance in organizations. This workshop provides skills and knowledge for leaders and managers to proactively prevent and resolve conflict and to increase collaboration with diverse employees and co-workers.
   DATE: OCT. 25, 2018 | 8:30 AM - 12:00 PM | COST: $50
   LOCATION: KSU, Kennesaw campus, English Building RM 166

3. MANAGING GENERATIONAL CONFLICT IN THE WORKPLACE
   Ever had issues working with other generations, such as Baby Boomers, Generation X, Y, and Z? Each generation of employees are unique in their own way that they require leaders and employees to manage them differently. This workshop provides both young and senior professionals the knowledge and skills for effectively working together harmoniously across generations.
   DATE: NOV. 7, 2018 | 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM | COST: $25
   LOCATION: KSU, Marietta campus, Student Center A214

TRAINER
Yeju “Chloe Choi, MS, is a doctoral candidate in the School of Conflict Management, Peacebuilding & Development. Choi teaches a management course in the Coles College of Business. Prior to this experience, she worked as a supervisor in a multinational corporation.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
Ellen Lahtinen | elahtine@kennesaw.edu | (470) 578-6115

http://chss.kennesaw.edu/ccm/ | @KSUConflict