Michael is originally from Merrick, Long Island, NY and moved to Georgia in 1986 to pursue his BA at Emory University, which he completed in 1989 with majors in Educational Research, Philosophy & Religion. He was the youngest graduate that year from Emory, at 19 years old. Michael worked briefly in banking for C&S Bank (now part of Bank of America), then completed his MS in Higher Education Administration at Florida State University in 1991. Michael also worked on coursework toward an MBA at Polytechnic University, and then later finished his Ph.D. at Georgia State University in Educational Policy Studies in 2006.
