LEARN CRITICAL THINKING AND ANALYTICAL SKILLS

Our students ask the big philosophical questions and learn how different cultures have addressed these questions. They learn to think and speak clearly, analyze situations and arguments, and logically assess issues and problems. These skills make our graduates ready to creatively solve the challenges they will face in their future careers.

PATHWAY TO AN ADVANCED DEGREE

Per the Law School Admissions Council, philosophy majors applying to law school had the seventh highest LSAT scores and their average acceptance rate was 86%. According to the American Philosophical Association, philosophy majors consistently perform best or near best on graduate school admission exams, compared to other majors

INTERNSHIPS

We focus on education through action and having job-ready skills by offering internship opportunities with a career focus for all students.
