Trained

A 10-part training module built by FLED faculty includes learning strategies, diverse learners, and help with all language modes.

Engaged

Our student employees help run several conversation tables and they are actively building the FLRC database of authentic texts.

Ways to engage

Faculty can...

- Use the term “language partner”
- Invite a one to class
- Consult with them about your needs and course resources

Possible assignments with language partners

- Email-pals
- Prepare or revise for a writing assignment
- Prepare for an oral presentation
- Interviews about unit topics
