DESCRIPTION
The first 28 hours of mediation training focuses on an understanding of the mediation process, communication skills, problem-solving skills, agreement writing, and mediation ethics. Mediation skills are taught in a highly interactive format through short lecture, group discussion, focused exercises, and coached role-play. The training is designed to prepare the participant for mediation in civil cases. In addition, this intense four-day experience is designed to hone life skills that can enhance the participant’s ability to interact effectively with others. The training provides an understanding of the theory behind conflict while developing an effective skillset in resolving conflict.

The training meets general mediation training requirements for registration with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution (GODR). In addition, the training is approved for Continuing Legal Education (CLE) hours (28 regular and 3 ethics).

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
Participants who complete this training will demonstrate the knowledge and skillset of the mediation process. The importance of confidentiality, understanding the ethics, regulations, practices and policies of mediation and the recognition of diversity issues in mediation.
