

World Language Teaching in Georgia: A great Plan A and a great Plan B

Graduate with a career in hand!

- Even if you might consider a different career direction, having a teaching certificate offers you a viable plan B to help you earn money straight out of school while you can pay for your studies with federal financial aid.
- You work 190-195 days out of 365 days a year! Vacation, travel, leisure!!
- There is a shortage of language teachers across the state and more demand every year!
- Make yourself eligible for federal student loan forgiveness through public service!
- While the base state salary in Georgia a beginning teacher with a Bachelor's Degree is \$34,092, school districts offer local supplements, which make starting pay very competitive.
- Each school district posts their individual openings, but if you want information about the statewide openings and job fairs, visit Teach Georgia - <https://www.teachgeorgia.org/>.
- Each school district offers a comprehensive selection of benefits, starting with health insurance, dental insurance, life insurance, etc. as well as your participation in Teacher Retirement System \(TRS\), a generous pension plan.
