

HOW TO RECEIVE ACADEMIC CREDIT FOR AN INTERNSHIP/CO-OP

College of Humanities & Social Sciences

STEP 1: Obtain an Internship or Co-op position.

- Students are encouraged to use Handshake, Career fairs, networking etc. to secure a position that will allow them to learn skills relevant to their academic major.
- Each department provides specific guidelines to gain academic credit, please check out our page <http://careers.kennesaw.edu/hss/> to see summarized requirements for your specific major before continuing onto Step 2.

STEP 2: Completion of the Internship/Co-op Application on Handshake by the Application Deadline of 05/06/19 for Summer and 08/06/19 for Fall

- Log on to Handshake : <https://kennesaw.joinhandshake.com>
- Select "Experiences" from the "Career Center" tab
- Select "Request and Experience" to create a new application
- Make sure that you select your correct Major and SUMMER 2019 from the drop down menu
- Enter your position's SUPERVISOR as the "Approver" and include contact information
- Upload an "Offer Letter" to ensure processing, if no offer letter is listed, we will contact your supervisor through Handshake for approval

*Note: You may request an Offer Letter from your supervisor: It should contain position, start date, hours/week and salary

STEP 3 Processing and Approving your Application:

- Your application will be reviewed on Handshake by an Internship Advisor to ensure you meet the minimum requirements for your academic program. Each department provides specific guidelines, check out our page <http://careers.kennesaw.edu/hss/> to see summarized requirements for your specific major
- Once your application has been APPROVED by your supervisor and Faculty Internship/Co-op Liaison, an Internship Advisor will provide you with a course "override" and email you the CRN & instructions on how to register that you need to follow step-by-step

STEP 4 Registration

- Some Internship/Co-op courses are "Variable Credit" which means you must register for the amount of credits you have been approved for. Instructions will be provided in your approval email.
- You need to register yourself by the last day of Drop/Add (06/03/19 SUMMER and 08/25/19 FALL at 11:45 PM)
