Course Communication:
By far, the best way to reach me outside of class is via e-mail. Please NO TEXT MESSAGES! I may only respond to you if you are using a proper KSU e-mail address (see paragraph below). Please bear in mind that I check my e-mail several times during the day, but will not check it between the hours of 8:00 P.M and 8:00 A.M. Note that some matters require face-to-face meetings. I will not discuss grades, course standings or other issues of a complicated or personal nature via e-mail. PLEASE DO NOT E-MAIL ME DIRECTLY FROM D2L!

Electronic Communications: The University provides all KSU students with an “official” email account with the address “students.kennesaw.edu.” As a result of federal laws protecting educational information and other data, this is the sole email account you should use to communicate with your instructor or other University officials.

Course Description:
Starting in the pre-Columbian period, this course covers the American experience until 1763. It looks at Native American life, colonization and settlement by the Spanish, French and English, interaction with the Atlantic world, and the wars for imperial dominance fought in North America until 1763. Issues explored include class structure and family life, religion, politics, intellectual movements, society and culture, slavery, and treatment of minorities.
Learning Objectives:
- Students will identify the important themes and developments of the period of colonial settlement through quizzes, exams and participation in class discussion.
- Students will demonstrate an ability to analyze primary sources effectively.
- Students will demonstrate an understanding of the importance of historiography in discussing historical problems through their work on a historiographical essay.

Required Reading:
Stanley N. Katz, et. al., Colonial America: Essays in Politics and Social Development
6th Edition
ISBN#: 9780415879569

ISBN#: 9781319048907
Attendance:

Attendance is required in this course. It is the best way to insure that you will do well! Therefore, you are allowed three absences throughout the semester. I will make no distinction between “excused” and “unexcused”. After three absences, I will deduct three points from your final grade for every class you miss beyond these “freebies.” If you must miss a class day due to illness or family emergency, it is your responsibility to get the class notes you missed from a fellow student. I will not, under any circumstances provide students with my personal notes!

A NOTE ABOUT LATENESS: I know that from time to time some of you will be late for class. Yet I always have a few students who are late for every single class. When you arrive late you disrupt the class and the learning process. You should also know that I will be giving quizzes at the beginning of the class period. If you arrive late to class on a quiz day, you will not be allowed to take the quiz. Please be mindful of this and do your best to arrive to class on time. IF FOR SOME REASON YOU KNOW YOU WILL BE LATE FOR CLASS EVERY DAY, PLEASE TELL ME THIS AT THE BEGINNING OF THE SEMESTER. I CAN MAKE EXCEPTIONS IF I KNOW THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Electronic Devices Policy:

All cell phones and similar devices should be turned off and put away during class time. I will allow lap tops for note taking purposes only. If I see a student using his/her laptop for any other purpose, I will ask that student to leave. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES ARE YOU TO USE YOUR SMARTPHONES FOR NOTE TAKING! Please note that no electronics are permitted in the classroom during examinations.

Assessment:

There will be two examinations, a midterm and a final. They will be essay in format and will require blue books.
Please Note: Material covered in lecture and ALL READINGS IS FAIR GAME FOR EXAMS. Make sure you have good notes and that you keep up with the reading.

A word about leaving the room during an exam: IF YOU LEAVE THE CLASSROOM DURING AN EXAM, YOU ARE FINISHED WITH THE EXAM! YOU WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO RETURN TO THE CLASSROOM AND CONTINUE YOUR WORK. SO DO WHAT YOU HAVE TO DO (GET A DRINK, GO TO THE BATHROOM, etc.) BEFORE THE EXAM BEGINS! As with all of my other policies, should you have a good reason for leaving the classroom during an exam and you can provide me with documentation of your reason, I will make an exception.

In addition to the exams, I will give five quizzes through the course of the semester. The quizzes will cover the readings and may ask you to compare different readings.

Finally, you will be writing a historiographical essay (8-10 pages, 12-point, double-space typed) on a topic approved by me. I will give you a separate handout about this assignment. The due dates for topic approval and for the final draft of the essay are in the Course Schedule. Failure to meet the topic approval deadline will result in a 5-point reduction on the final paper. I WILL NOT ACCEPT LATE PAPERS!! IF YOU MISS THE DUE DATE, YOU WILL RECEIVE A “0” FOR THE ASSIGNMENT! I will also provide you with a grading rubric for the essay. You will find that on D2L Bright Space. The instructor reserves the right to use plagiarism detection services.

Make-up Exam Policy:

If for any family or medical reason (all must be documented!) you find it absolutely necessary to miss an examination or quiz, you must contact me before the exam or quiz and have my consent to your absence. Failure to do so will result in a zero for the assignment. In addition, with the exception of extreme cases there will be no early or make-up finals! As with all other exams and quizzes, you must contact me in advance should an extreme emergency arise.
The Department will host a day for makeup exams for students with excused absences at the end of each semester. Students will need to bring an ID to the makeup exam. If I can find no other time to proctor a make-up, we will use this time. For Fall Semester 2019 makeups will be proctored Friday, December 6th from 1:00 – 4:00 pm in SO 2025.

Academic Integrity Statement

Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5. C of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the university’s policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to university materials, misrepresentation/falsification of university records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an “informal” resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct’s minimum one semester suspension requirement. See also https://web.kennesaw.edu/scai/content/ksu-student-code-conduct. If you are found cheating on an exam or quiz, you will fail that assignment with a “0.” It’s as plain as that. DON’T CHEAT!

“Cheating” also includes plagiarism! This will not be tolerated under any circumstances. When in doubt, cite! If you are unclear about this, you may ask me or visit one of the web sites listed below. Any indication of plagiarism will result in a “0” for the assignment. So if you are unclear about this, be sure to ask me.

If, after reviewing the course syllabus, a student anticipates or should have anticipated a need for accommodation, he or she must submit documentation requesting an accommodation and permitting time for a determination prior to submitting assignments or taking course quizzes or exams. Students may not request retroactive accommodation for needs that were or should have been foreseeable.
