Course Description:

From Catalog at: <http://catalog.kennesaw.edu/content.php?catoid=34&navoid=2699>

- A survey of major themes in world history since 1945, this course focuses on sociocultural and intellectual developments in addition to the traditional concerns with political and economic relations. Particular emphasis is given to great power relations, the role of the middle powers, and North-South relations as well as the interactions between Western and non-Western cultures in the context of increasing globalization.

Learning Objectives:

The course aims to familiarize students with major primary sources of the post-WWII era /the Cold War era and promotes the development of historical analysis skills. A strong emphasis will be placed on strengthening critical thinking skills and students will be expected to develop their own conclusions that they will need to be able to express and defend in a clear and logical manner.

Course Policies:

Enrollment Policy: Students are solely responsible for managing their enrollment status in a class; nonattendance does not constitute a withdrawal.

Attendance Policy: Class attendance is mandatory. Roll will be taken every period (taken twice in summer ---- 1st period 2:00-3:15; the second period 3:30-4:45) Students who have 5 or more unexcused and undocumented absences (THREE DAYS in Summer) will automatically fail this course (and your instructor will stop grading their assignments). Students with no or a few legitimate, and documented absences may be granted a slight curve if the student's final grade is at borderline. If you missed a class, please submit your explanation why you had to miss a class along with appropriate documents in a designated Dropbox folder in D2L within a week. Students who are caught asleep or doing something not related to class will be counted absent. Please also note that regular attendance does not guarantee a passing grade. All students are responsible for the material covered in class. If you miss class, the responsibility is on the student to acquire notes etc. from a classmate and NOT from the instructor.

Class Decorum: In an attempt to create an efficient learning environment, disruptive behaviors will not be tolerated. Some examples of disruptive behaviors include arriving late and/or leaving early, moving around and/or leaving the classroom, and talking to your neighbor. If you have to leave class early, please let your instructor know at the beginning of class. Students arriving late or leaving early will be counted "Absent" or "Present" at the discretion of the instructor. Failure to comply with these requests may also result in your dismissal from the classroom.

Electronic Devices Policy: Use of electronic devices in class is permitted only to take notes (laptop or tablet computer), participate in class activities as directed by your instructor or to access e-books and documents used in the lecture. You must refrain from accessing any email, social media, playing games or any other activities not related to class. All devices should be silenced. Cell phone use for the purposes of texting, email or other social media is not permitted. Do not leave the classroom in order to answer phone calls, check or send messages unless you have a pending emergency (please inform your instructor before class). If your instructor suspects that you are engaging in unrelated activities using your personal electronic device, your instructor reserves the right to take appropriate disciplinary action (e.g. ask you to leave and counted absent, or ask you to place the device out of your reach).

Online Exam / Quiz Policy: Students are expected to complete their quizzes and exams during the "exam/quiz window" (usually outside of class time). To take the exams and quizzes, students must use the Respondus LockDown Browser and Webcam Monitor which requires a computer with a functioning internal or external camera & microphone (purchased for $10-$15 if you do not have them already), sound card, and strong/dependable Internet access. If needed, students may use the KSU library or computer labs to access the exam. Students, remember that you and your environment are being recorded while you take the exam. Please wear appropriate clothing and conduct yourself in a professional manner. Abuse of the webcam monitor will be reported to the proper authorities.

If you encounter any technical or personal difficulties, please let your instructor know as soon as possible. Include all relevant information and provide appropriate supportive evidence(s). If you contact your instructor before the exam/quiz/assignment is due with supportive "evidence(s)", appropriate accommodation may be made. If you simply failed to take the exam or quiz or failed to submit assignment, you will receive a ZERO. There will be no make-up quizzes.

Academic Integrity Statement and Policy

Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5c of the Student Code of Conduct.

(<https://web.kennesaw.edu/scai/content/ksu-student-code-conduct>).

According to

<http://scai.kennesaw.edu/KSU%20Codes%20of%20Conduct%202017-2018.pdf>, Types of Academic Misconduct include (but not limited):

1) Cheating. Receiving, attempting to receive, knowingly giving or attempting to give unauthorized assistance in the preparation of any work required to be submitted for credit (including examinations, laboratory reports, essays, themes, term papers, etc.) is considered cheating, as is engaging in any behavior that a professor prohibits as academic misconduct in the syllabus or class discussion. Unless specifically authorized, using and/or having access to electronic devices during an examination, quiz, test or other assessment is automatically considered cheating, regardless of the student's reason for using/accessing the device;

2) Plagiarism. Including direct quotations from other sources into work required to be submitted for credit without indicating them as such by quotation marks, block quotes or other appropriate formatting. Incorporating the work of someone (e.g. ideas, theories, data, figures, graphs, programs, electronic based information, illustrations, etc.) into a paper or project without due acknowledgement;

3) Self-Plagiarism. Submitting any work for credit which was not authored specifically and originally for the assignment in question without the prior permission of the professor receiving that assignment. Most commonly, this means submitting the same, or substantially the same, paper or other assignment for credit in more than one class;

4) Misrepresentation and/or Falsification. Knowingly providing false information in completing University forms or applications (including admissions forms, scholarship applications, time sheets, false or counterfeit transcripts, etc.) or in any work submitted for credit. This includes providing fabricated/altered documents to substantiate an excused absence (such as to meet attendance requirements or have the chance to make up a missed exam). Signing in for another student or having another individual sign in on a student's behalf on an attendance sheet also constitutes a violation of this code section.

According to KSU's Academic Integrity Statement:

"Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an "informal" resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct's minimum one semester suspension requirement."

"An "informal" resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment" may include receiving a failing course grade.

If you need help in adding citations, speak to your instructor or go to the writing center about the proper way to document your work.
