

Kennesaw State University Graduate College

TOEFL/IELTS Waiver Policy

International Applicants

In addition to meeting specific requirements for each degree program, international students must meet the following requirements:

English Proficiency Tests – International students must have earned the following score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): Paper Based – 550; Computer Based (CBT) – 213; Internet Based (IBT) – 80; or a score of 6.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) test.

The TOEFL or IELTS is not required for applicants who:

- Have graduated from a college or university in the United States accredited in a manner accepted by Kennesaw State University.
- Are from one of the following countries: Australia, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Canada, Dominica, Ghana, Guyana, Kenya, Ireland, Jamaica, Liberia, New Zealand, Nigeria, Sierre Leone, South Africa, Tobago, Trinidad, United Kingdom, United States or Zimbabwe

Under certain circumstances, international applicants to the Graduate College may request a waiver for the TOEFL or IELTS when applying for admission. The Graduate College will consider, on a case-by-case basis, waiver requests from applicants who fall into at least one of the following categories:

- The applicant has completed, with a minimum grade point average of 3.0, at least two years full-time study at a recognized college or university whose primary language of instruction is English
- The applicant has completed the highest level of intensive English study at the Georgia Institute of Technology or level 6 of the Intensive English Program at Kennesaw State University
- The applicant has five years residency in the US, working in an establishment where all activities are conducted in English

A TOEFL waiver is not automatic for any applicant. To request a TOEFL waiver, the applicant must submit an Request for TOEFL/IELTS waiver to the Office of Graduate Admissions. This form is available at: www.kennesaw.edu/graduate/admissions/forms.html. You must have a Graduate Application for Admission on file to request a waiver.

Applicants to graduate programs may also be required to provide additional evidence of English proficiency in support of a waiver, including, but not limited to:

- an official TOESP (Test of English as a Spoken Language) score of at least 520
- a telephone or in-person interview with an Admissions committee member
- a writing sample certified to be the applicant's own work
